FROM THE RABBI

WHY BE JEWISH?

You shall not oppress a stranger, for you know the feelings of the stranger, having yourselves been strangers in the land of Egypt. Exodus 23.9

Recently, the question came up: Does B'nai Sholom want to support just causes as a congregation? The Religious Action Center (Reform Judaism's social justice organization) called to ask if I would support expansion of WV law to include protection for Lesbian, Gay, Bi-Sexual and Transgender (LGBT) people in regard to housing and employment. They wanted me to write a letter to the local paper, preferably with a Christian colleague, stating religiously-based reasons for this support. I was glad to do it. The Board was glad for me to do it. We agreed that I would not speak for the entire congregation as we don't know how the entire congregation thinks on this or any issue. Reverend Rick Wilson and I wrote an opinion piece for the Herald-Dispatch that was printed March 18, and we were guests on Jean Dean's radio show that week as well. As it turned out, the WV House committee did not pass the new legislation this session. Still, we have been given an opportunity.

This experience gives us the chance to ask ourselves the question: Do we as a congregation want to be involved in justice issues? I thought it was basic to Judaism (See above quote from Torah). I thought the whole Passover seder was meant to inspire us to increase justice in the world, within the constraints of reality. It turns out that it may be more complicated than that. For one thing, I carelessly set myself up in opposition to the board in last month's newsletter article. That was a mistake born of my nascent passion on the subject and relative inexperience as a rabbi. It is not up to me to ram anything through. After all, B'nai Sholom was here long before I was and – if we all do our part – will be here long after I am gone. A rabbi has a certain amount of influence on the life of a congregation, but the congregation is bigger than the rabbi. Also, my natural talents are not in community organizing, except insofar as that is accomplished by learning and worshipping together.

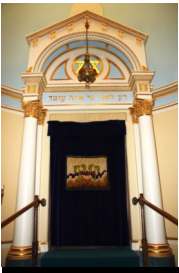

In Friday night services lately I've been asking the questions: What is it about Judaism that is compelling for you? Why are you Jewish? Whatever it is, is it compelling enough to convince the next generation to be Jewish? I have been getting some responses, which I plan to fashion into a High Holy Day sermon. Each week I have been offering another of my favorite things about Judaism. These are the things that made me decide to become a rabbi so I could spread my enthusiasm for Judaism around. One of them is the idea that we are here to make the world a better place, not only for ourselves and our families, but for the rest of humanity as well.

What is most important to you about being Jewish? Do the ethical imperatives of tzedakah (righteous giving) and tikkun olam (repair of the world) resonate with you? Or, do those things take a back seat to some other aspect of Judaism? Please let me know – call me, write me, email me, come see me. And come to the Congregational Meeting next month. If we decide social justice is important to us, we'll be prepared to act on it next time the opportunity arises.

B'shalom, Wishing peace and wholeness for you and for all the world,

Rabbi Jean E. Eglinton

B'NAI SHOLOM IS PARTNERING WITH MARSHALL'S COLLEGE OF FINE ARTS TO SUPPORT THE HUNTINGTON AREA FOOD BANK.

EMPTY BOWLS PROJECT

The Empty Bowls offers guests who contribute $12, a generous portion of soup donated by area restaurants, and served in a unique ceramic bowl, handmade by a student in Marshall's Keramos Student Pottery Guild.

The bowl is yours to take home as a lasting reminder of the hunger that so many in our region regularly face.

This year's event will be Friday, April 19, 2013 at the First Presbyterian Church, 10:30 AM to 2:00 PM.

There is also an opportunity to bid on dozens of items at a SILENT AUCTION.

Last year, the nearly 1,000 people in attendance at Empty Bowls had the opportunity to bid on dozens of items, including gift baskets from local businesses, sports memorabilia autographed by Marshall athletes and coaches, and a two night all inclusive trip to the General Lewis Inn located in Lewisburg, WV.

Last year's lunch and the auction raised nearly $18,500, with all proceeds going to the Huntington Area Food Bank (HAFB) – a nonprofit food distribution center that provides food to soup kitchens, emergency relief shelters and other hunger relief programs throughout the Tri-State.

Each dollar donated at Empty Bowls enables the Food Bank to distribute seven pounds of food to the hungry in our region. Every $12 donation – the price of your special lunch – will feed an entire family for three weeks.

As partners in this important project, B'nai Sholom Congregation has assumed responsibility for obtaining items for the SILENT AUCTION. This will involve contacting local businesses and local attractions for donations.

WE ARE LOOKING FOR VOLUNTEERS TO HELP US SOLICIT DONATIONS DURING APRIL.

If you are interested in helping with this Temple/ Marshall partnership to support the Food Bank, please contact: Sam Kincaid: (304) 525-7031 kincaid@marshall.edu

FINAL TICKET	360	$7,500	Arnold Janicker

On Sunday, March 10th we awarded prizes totaling $15,425, with Arnold Janicker of Huntington hailing as our $7500 grand prize winner! Of the 23 prize winners, 11 were either B'nai Sholom members or those with direct ties to our members! I'm also happy to report that we sold a record total of 448 tickets, which was thrilling! Thank you to those who bought tickets and sold tickets. Proudly, I can say approximately 95% of our congregation participated by buying either a ticket or multiple tickets, which was greatly appreciated. Due to the strong ticket sales our congregation was a big winner too, with a huge profit of $38,133, another raffle record!

The day of the raffle was full of excitement and fun. Every table was beautifully decorated and filled with synagogue members and community friends.

Laughing, talking and eating yummy food was the agenda of the day, as ticket buyers waited anxiously to see if they would be a winner. Even if your number was called early, we still had the 50/50 raffle and poker games going to keep our spirits high as prizes were also awarded to those winners!

The success of the raffle happens each year because of the many dedicated members who year in and year out step up to make sure all the pieces of the raffle puzzle are in place and ready to go. Without their dedication, the raffle would cease to exist, so it is important to extend a big THANK YOU to the people listed below and on the next page:

PAUL MAYER, who willingly agreed to wear many hats this year. As our PR representative, he is the person to thank for all wonderful articles in the Herald Dispatch which kept the raffle front and center on everyone's mind. He even did a spot on the Jean Dean Show promoting the raffle, thanks to David Glick. His second hat was as the raffle MC, the hardest job of all. For four straight hours, Paul called numbers and kept the pace moving. all the while making it fun and exciting!

MARK NEWFELD, our President and #1 cheerleader! Mark has been the backbone of the raffle for many years, ensuring it's continuation with strong sales and enthusiasm, which is very contagious! Nancy as always is hard at work too constantly selling to any one who crosses her path.

TOM SCARR, who made sure all our signs were updated and ready for placement in the community. The signs really do help sell tickets by reminding our regular ticket buyers and informing potential new buyers of this important annual community event. Tom is also an amazing ticket seller plus advisor on the many issues that seem to come up along the way.

MARC SOLOCHEK, our efficient treasurer who keeps us accountable, plus writes all the checks to the winners! We are grateful to have Marc as our treasurer, that is for sure!

MALINDA CAINS, our bookkeeper and computer guru! Without Malinda's mathematical mind and computer skills, our raffle would not be the reputable event it is today. Because of Malinda's methods for checking and cross checking, everything runs smoothly on raffle day.

* IRVING "GREENIE" GREENSTEIN, for selling the most raffle tickets, once again. It is amazing how many people Greenie knows. He is the backbone of our selling team along with DAVID GLICK. Up to the last day they continue to sell away!

ROSE RITER, for designing, then making with helpers CHERYL HERSH and TORI WUCHER, our fabulous, fun table centerpieces! I know it was a lot of work but your creativity really helped set the mood for a fun filled afternoon.

SHARON PRESSMAN and our amazing SISTERHOOD CATERING COMMITTEE for the delicious and plentiful food. It's no surprise that many people buy raffle tickets just because of the food! Everything was yummy and so beautifully displayed once again!

MARTHA NEWBY, our secretary, for the endless hours spent serving as our ticket bookkeeper, money recorder, ticket seller and email cheerleader! Without Martha, the raffle would cease to happen because she is the glue that keeps us together and moving forward!

BILL WHITTENBURG, our custodian, for setting up and then tearing down all the equipment, along with the needed cleanup. By the next day, everything was so clean you never would have known a raffle had taken place the day before. Bill also sets up the outdoor signs, selling for us at least 10 tickets.

DAVID GLICK and MARK BRODOF, for running the 50/50 Raffle and making it so exciting! They had record sales this year also. Must be those good looks gentlemen! Sure appreciate your making us all that extra cash!

JOE HORN and MATT COLKER, for running the Poker game and making it so much fun! Bet your good looks sold all those cards making us all that extra cash!

KELLY LEVY, LYNNE MAYER and JUDY WOODRUFF for working the records table during the raffle and keeping everything straight and error free. They were a good looking bunch who definitely brightened up the front of the room!

GAVIN BEVERAGE, WILLIAM BEVERAGE, AYSA CAINS, NATHAN JURIN, LEAH LEVY and advisor MEGAN GARRETT, our Youth Group who manned the second records table on the stage, ensuring another successful raffle! You did a great job!

SAMANTHA BEVERAGE and TOM PRESSMAN, for maintaining the status board, which is not an easy job. It takes so much concentration and stamina to stand there for 4 hours non-stop! You did a great job, so hopefully we can hire you again next year!

RABBI JEAN EGLINTON, CHERYL HERSH and MITCH KLEIN, for greeting all of our guests as they arrived with big, warm smiles and shout outs for good luck!

NANCY NEWFELD and PJ SCARR, for coming to my house three Sundays in a row to help make calls and address envelopes with letters to potential ticket buyers. Many tickets were sold on those Sundays!

DEREK HYMAN, MITCH KLEIN and PETER LEVY for assisting with all the unknowns that came up along the way! We appreciate what you did to help things run smoothly.

TO EVERYONE WHO BOUGHT AND SOLD TICKETS!!!!!!!!!!!! YOU ARE AWESOME!!!!!!!!!!!!

With much appreciation,
Diane Shattls

Simchas & Tchootchkes

Depending on the U. S. Post Office and modern technology, Passover may be over by the time you read this.

If, however, the holiday is still continuing, hurry in and pick up the Matzo Cookbook you should have bought when the week began.

If Passover is over - - -let's move right on.

Yippee!! It's the season for Bar Mitzvahs, Moms, Grads, and Brides-to-be.

In the shop, we have lots of seasons and this one is a doozy.

We have swept out the Matzo crumbs and brought in shelves full of never before seen (at least not for a year) pieces of Judaica.
They are splendid. We now have new yads,
Kiddush cups and candle sticks.

We also have ordered new and very current jewelry,
both in gold and silver.

We always have new mezuzahs,
but these are truly Fabulous . . . Truly!!!

And have you seen the new tallises, Oy!!!

Our gift items are, as always, breath taking; serving pieces, crystal, and glass.
All everyone will love.

But, when it's gone, it's gone.
Come in for your free kisses!!!

SISTERHOOD CENTENNIAL

Some of our lovely Sisterhood members posed for this picture on the evening of the Sisterhood Centennial Shabbat Service, March 1, 2013.

Congratulations to B'nai Sholom Sisterhood for 100 years of service to Judaism and our congregation since 1913! We are a Centennial Sisterhood and there are very few in our district that have accomplished that!

Also, congratulations to all our past Sisterhood presidents, including Rabbi Jean as past president of her former Sisterhood in Louisville, for participating in the Friday night service with Judy and me, as your current co-presidents delivering the sermonette.

Thanks to Sharon Pressman, Tori Wucher and committee for the presentation at the Frederick Hotel! Fun was had by all! We are a proud Centennial Sisterhood in Huntington, West Virginia! Looking forward to the next 100 plus years!

Shalom...Donnel Horn
