FROM THE RABBI

HAPPY CHANUKAH Chanukah Samei-ach תְּנִצֵּה שְׂמִיךְ

Chanukiyahs in every window! Chanukah menorahs in windows up and down the walls of apartment buildings in Jerusalem. That's about all there is to Chanukah in Israel. It is very beautiful for an evening walk - sharing some sufganiyot or jelly donuts along the way - and does not involve the massive gift exchange of the American Way.

The story of Chanukah is not in the Hebrew Bible. The first and second books of Maccabees survive in the Catholic Bible. Most Jews consider them historically but not religiously significant. There is that miracle of the oil to rededicate the Temple - only enough for one day - that lasted for eight days. That sounds religious. Jews tend to be suspicious of stories of the miraculous. Instead, we emphasize the fact that a small number of dedicated Jewish fighters managed to thrust off the yoke of the Roman Empire. It is a festival of religious freedom! Through the centuries Jews have demonstrated the need for both aspects of the story. When people work together we can achieve unbelievable tasks. In moments of clarity we also recognize that we are not totally in control of events. We can recognize the role of chaos theory and God in determining outcomes.

When you light the candles this Chanukah (first night, Tuesday, December 20) place them in the chanukiyah from right to left, say the blessings, and light them from left to right using the shamash or helper candle. Celebrate the great things that we have accomplished, pray for the strength to take it further, and appreciate the unknown in the golden glow of the Chanukah menorahs.

בָּרַךְ אַתָּה יְיָ אֱלֹהֵינוּ מֶלֶךְ הָעוֹלָם אֲשֶׁר קִדְּשָׁנוּ בְּמִצְוֹתָיו וְצִוָּנוּ לְהַדְלִיק נֵר שֶׁל חֲנֻכָּה.
Barukh atah Adonai Eloheinu Melekh ha'olam asher qidshanu bemitzvotav vetzivanu lehadliq ner shel Chanukah.

Blessed are You Adonai our God, Ruler of the universe, who makes us holy through mitzvot and commands us to kindle the lights of Chanukah.

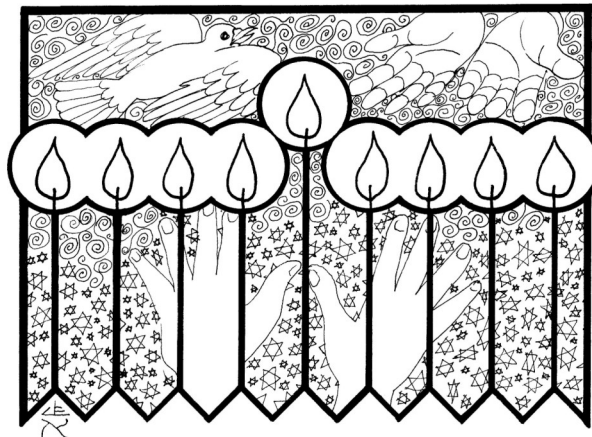

בָּרַךְ אַתָּה יְיָ אֱלֹהֵינוּ מֶלֶךְ הָעוֹלָם שֶׁעָשָׂה נִסִּים לְאַבוֹתֵינוּ בַּיָּמִים הָהֵם בְּזֶמַן הַזֶּה.
Barukh atah Adonai Eloheinu Melekh ha'olam she'asah nisim la-avoteinu bayamim hameim bazman hazeh.

Blessed are You Adonai our God, Ruler of the universe, who performed miracles for our ancestors in those days at this season.

First night only:

בָּרַךְ אַתָּה יְיָ אֱלֹהֵינוּ מֶלֶךְ הָעוֹלָם שֶׁהָחַיָּנוּ וְקִיָּמָנוּ וְהִגִּינוּ לָזֶמַן הַזֶּה.
Barukh atah Adonai Eloheinu Melekh ha'olam shehecheyanu, veqimanu, vehigiyanu lazman hazeh.
 Blessed are You Adonai our God, Ruler of the universe, who has given us life, who has sustained us and has brought us to this time.

A joyous festival of light and freedom to us all,
 Rabbi Jean Eglinton

We both are so grateful to the many people who sent Shalomgrams to Dave in honor of his 90th birthday.

It was so thoughtful of you to think of him and good wishes are always great to receive. We both appreciate your kindness.

Dave and Gert Scarr

Dear B'nai Sholom Family,

From the bottom of my heart, I truly want to thank you for all the love you showered upon me during my Mom's recent illness. Without your love and support, the journey I was on with my Mom truly would have been so much harder to bear. Thankfully though, because you took the time to make your presence known with a hug, card, donation, call, email, text, food or Facebook posting, each step of the way was made so much warmer and brighter. For that gift of Mitzvot I am truly grateful. May your loving hearts always reach out to families who need comfort because I can honestly say it truly does make a difference! Many thanks.

*Warmly,
Diane Shattls*

A BIG THANK YOU to Herman Glaser, our religious school students and everyone who donated to or helped prepare the Thanksgiving Baskets for area people in need!

Amid the many changes under way in North Africa today, JDC, which is supported by Jewish Federations, is helping Jewish communities in Morocco and Tunisia support their elderly, maintain their cultural identities, and provide quality education for their youth. SIMCHAS & TSCHOTCHKES

The happiest Holiday of all is quickly approaching - -are you ready?

We are. The shop chicks have been hither and yon
(just down the road from Paradise and Eden).
Searching for everything you need to celebrate Chanukah, Hanukah, Hanuchah - - spell it anyway you like - -you will finds lots to smile about right in the social hall.

We have Menorahs - - boy, do we have Menorahs - -glass, metal and ceramic; wooden, clay and paper – and that’s just to name a few.

We also have decorations, lights and wrapping paper - -just to mention a few more.

We still have pictures, mouse pads, necklaces and tiles from Passion Works, a group of disabled adults making wonderful one-of-a-kind pieces of art.

The best news? More is on the way.
If you think the shop is great now, just wait a minute.

Shop early and often 'cause you know what happens when it's gone.

Come in for a free kiss. Everything else has a price on it.

My Huntington, West Virginia Jewish Experiences

By David Allen Glick

In honor of my 70 years in Huntington

I was born December 27, 1941 in Huntington, W.Va. I can recall my Jewish experiences began very young for me.

I learned the Holidays from mother and father who took me to B'nai Israel synagogue at a very young age. I went most Friday nights after our Friday Shabbos dinner, which was usually comprised of my mother's delicious brisket which I loved, or chicken, which was not my favorite. We would always have to eat our vegetables, (which I hated) and clean our plates. Today I like my vegetables...we all change with time.

I remember my dear mother always lighting the Sabbath candles. We always said the prayer over wine. My family consisted of my dad, Jack Glick, my mother Miriam Cohen Glick and my dear sister Joanne Glick Levey.

We would go to Services with Rabbi Danziger conducting. I dearly loved Rabbi Danziger. From age 5 to 13 when I was Bar Mitzvahed, I attended "Chader" (Hebrew School) every day after school. I learned how to read Hebrew but couldn't translate too many words. My Hebrew Teacher was Rev. Isaac Katz, a short little man that we loved to kid with. (sorry about ending with a preposition.)

My Bar Mitzvah studies were done with Rabbi Danziger. I remember my Bar Mitzvah like it was yesterday. Believe it or not, it was 57 years ago. I'll never forget that day. It was on January 1st, New Year's Day 1955. I remember leading the service. My favorite memory is my beloved grandfather Samuel Glick sitting on the pulpit with the Rabbi and me. During my sermon, which by the way, I had to memorize, I turned to Grandpa and said some words. He started to cry and I think so did I. You have to realize I was his first grandson to be bar mitzvahed.

I remember my reception at the Frederick Hotel. I stood in line shaking hands the whole time. I remember getting lots of presents (fountain pens.) One present I'll always remember was a white winter leather jacket given to me by my cousin Larry Glick. I really liked that. My most unusual gift was given to me by my family--a full size pin ball machine. My dad let everyone play for free. I think he paid $25.00 for it and sold it a couple of years later for $12.50. The kid he sold it to put a thing on it so people would have to pay to play. I think he got his money back in a couple of days.

Going back to Hebrew School.... I attended with my cousin Billy Glick, my friend Terry Brodof and cousin Michael Lerner. I think I'm right on this point but that was 60 years ago. One really funny incident happened one Friday night at the old Shul. Billy Glick, Michael Lerner and I were asked to lead either Adon Olam or Ein Keloheinu. Everyone who knew our family knew we would laugh very easily. We laughed at our Seders (not intentionally) weddings and many other things. Anyway, as we started singing, Billy and I busted out laughing and couldn't stop. The entire congregation broke into laughter, everyone except Michael Lerner.

I'll never forget my memories of B'nai Israel Synagogue. I always remember the High Holy Days falling during the World Series. I saw Willie Mays' catch of Vic Wertz's long drive in the 1954 World Series between the Giants and the Cleveland Indians.

There were only four students in our class: Ellen Herbert, who now lives in Fort Worth, TX., Karen Galperin, who I think lives in St. Louis, MO. And Toni Schoenfeld who lives in Cleveland, OH. or near there. We had a wonderful class with some terrific teachers.

Going back to the merger, I remember all the meetings we had with much discussion for and against. We knew we couldn't afford two quality rabbis with our shrinking Jewish population. We eventually made the right move. I believe Phil Aronson was our first Rabbi, followed by the three W's--Wenger, Wylen and Wucher. Rabbi Fred Wenger, Rabbi Steve Wylen and Rabbi David Wucher, and we now have Rabbi Jean Eglinton.

When I was away at college I always loved to bring my dear friend (of 50 years) and roommate Hank Haynes from New York home for the holiday. We were very much alike. We were both pretty religious and liked going to Services. I attended The University of Cincinnati. Rabbi Harry Danziger talked me into going there. Hank really liked my family and loved coming to Huntington. He still lives in New York and whenever he comes to Huntington, I still bring him and his wife to Services.

In 1970 I married my beloved Karen Sue May Glick. Not a day goes by that I don't think of her. I love you Karen. I remember for six months while she was studying for conversion and all those books she had to read. Before she was converted she had to take a two-hour written test. The Rabbi at that time was either Lupkin or Dworkin. I could not answer two out of every three questions...it was really hard! I have to stop for a minute while I dry my eyes.

I remember the conversion at the synagogue, just her family and mine--very small. It was beautiful. Going to Services was not Karen's favorite thing, but she went many times. She became President of everything: Daughters of Israel, Hadassah and Sisterhood, I think. She was a classy lady and quite a woman. I was lucky and so fortunate to have her for 27 years of marriage. We were married August 23rd, 1970, in the Synagogue. I'll always remember two songs that were sung by Mr. Robert Tweel: "Because" and "Sunrise Sunset." Every time I hear them I get tears in my eyes.

All I ever asked of my wife was to light Friday night candles, and if we were blessed with children, to raise them Jewish, which she did. We were blessed with our beautiful Shelley, but unfortunately we lost three. But I'm thankful for my dear Shelley. I'll always remember Shelley's Bat Mitzvah. It was held in this Temple in February or March, 1986. It was something she had wanted to do for me, as I had gone through melanoma cancer in 1985. She did so well and I was so proud of her. At her party they played the song (and also at her wedding reception) "Daddy's Little Girl." I had tears in my eyes the whole time we danced. I was so fortunate to have a tightly knit family.

My days and years at B'nai Israel are ones I'll never forget. I went back to visit in the 1990s way after the church bought it. I was caught by surprise to see a bandstand on the pulpit. The building brought back many memories of my childhood. B'nai Sholom has been wonderful. I am now able to take my grandsons Jackson and Brody. I still enjoy the Services and all of my B'nai Sholom family. Of course, my pet project is still Sunday Morning Services, which I have been working to keep going for more than 25 years.

May God bless all of my B'nai Sholom Congregation family with good health, happiness and peace.

Love and Shalom,
David Allen Glick
