From the Rabbi

Az egmor beshir mizmor chanukat hamizbeiach.

Then – singing psalms – I will complete the dedication of the altar.

(from Maoz Tzur, sometimes called Rock of Ages, a Chanukah song)

Many, many times over the centuries Jewish communities have found new strength, new resources, and new ways to rededicate themselves to living Jewish lives in their own times. We have a similar opportunity now.

The first night of Chanukah this year coincides with our Congregational Town Hall Meeting to brainstorm how to plot a course for our congregation in the next few years. Partly it's about finances and partly it's about making our Judaism as meaningful as it can be.

What do you dedicate yourself to? Your family? Your job? Your hobbies? All good things. Consider dedicating a portion (or a larger portion) of your time and energy to Judaism in this area. We are it. B'nai Sholom, Jewish Appalachian Outpost. Judaism here is as strong as we make it. If you have questions about what the point of being Jewish is, I would LOVE to speak with you about it.

Some people are happier keeping to themselves and cultivating their own personal sorts of spirituality. That is very important. As Jews we are also charged with figuring out how to be Jewish together. For one thing, being a good Jew necessarily entails tikkun olam, helping to make the world a better place. We can accomplish more together than individually or in family units.

What is the most important thing about Judaism to you? Is it having the family holidays and life cycle events? Remember that life cycle events are supported by the congregation. It is not right to demand the congregation be there for your life cycle event and then for you not to be there for other people in the congregation for their occasions – both joyous and solemn.

As we light the first candle of Chanukah this year at the Congregational Town Hall Meeting we will be sparking the renewal of our congregation for the next decade or more. Long ago there was an argument whether we should start with eight lights and light one less every night, or the other way around. It was decided to increase the light. That is what we are aiming to do. Increase the light.

May we all find ways to rededicate ourselves to our own Jewish Appalachian Outpost.

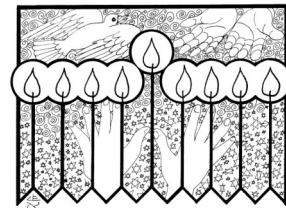

Chag Chanukah Sameiach – Happy Chanukah!

Rabbi Jean E. Eglinton

Sunday Morning Mussar*—Jewish Soul Work

Sunday, December 20 at 10:00 AM

“Everyday Holiness - The Jewish Spiritual Path of Mussar”

by Alan Morinis

right after Shacharit (morning) service

This week we are studying the characteristic called Seder, which means Order - both physical and spiritual order. Order can be compared to the clasp on a pearl necklace. The pearls are what make the necklace, and they are definitely more important than the clasp, but without the clasp the pearls will fall off. Similarly, a person contains an abundance of strengths, but without order all these will scatter and she/he will be left with nothing. (after Rabbi Shlomo Wolbe in the name of the Alter of Kelm)

GRATITUDE, ORDER, ENTHUSIASM, TRUTH, PATIENCE are just a few of the soul characteristics we can cultivate to lead better lives. Change is possible! *Mussar is the Jewish discipline of self-improvement. We study what Jewish texts say about the various characteristics of our personalities that could use honing. In between gatherings participants are invited to watch how the soul trait we are studying works in their own lives.

We Welcome Paul and Lynne Mayer as "Dual" Members!

Since moving to Colorado, our dear friends and longtime members Paul and Lynne Mayer have joined Har Hashem Congregation in Boulder, Co. But they have requested to retain membership at B'nai Sholom as well, this time as dual members. Paul and Lynne want everyone here to know: "Our B'nai Sholom family remains in our hearts."

Here is their new address for those who didn't see it before:

CHANNUKAH BLESSINGS – This year we light the first candle on the evening of December 6.

Light the Shamash - the helper candle - first using it to kindle the rest of the Hanukkah lights; say or sing:

בָּרוּךְ אַתָּה יְיָ אֱלֹהֵינוּ מֶלֶךְ הָעוֹלָם אֲשֶׁר קִדְּשָׁנוּ בְּמִצְוֹתָיו וְצִוָּנוּ לְהַדְלִיק
נֵר שֶׁל חֲנֻכָּה.

Baruch atah, Adonai Eloheinu, Melech haolam, asher kid'shanu b'mitzvotav v'tsivanu l'hadlik ner shel Chanukah. Blessed are You, Adonai our God, Sovereign of all, who hallows us with mitzvot, commanding us to kindle the Hanukkah lights.

בָּרוּךְ אַתָּה יְיָ אֱלֹהֵינוּ מֶלֶךְ הָעוֹלָם שֶׁעָשָׂה נִסִּים לְאַבוֹתֵינוּ וְאִמּוֹתֵינוּ
בַּיָּמִים הָהֵם בְּזִמָּן הַזֶּה.

Baruch atah, Adonai Eloheinu, Melech haolam, she-asah nisim laavoteinu v'imoteinu bayamim hahaeim baz'man hazeh. Blessed are You, Adonai our God, Sovereign of all, who performed wondrous deeds for our ancestors in days of old at this season.

For first night only:

בָּרוּךְ אַתָּה יְיָ אֱלֹהֵינוּ מֶלֶךְ הָעוֹלָם שֶׁחַיָּנוּ וְקִיָּמָנוּ וְהִגִּיעָנוּ לְזִמָּן הַזֶּה.

Baruch atah, Adonai Eloheinu, Melech haolam, shehecheyanu v'kiy'manu v'higianu laz'man hazeh. Blessed are You, Adonai our God, Sovereign of all, for giving us life, for sustaining us, and for enabling us to reach this season.

Each year on Christmas Eve and Christmas Day, members of B'nai Sholom Congregation take over volunteer positions at the Information Desk of Cabell Huntington Hospital.

This is done so that those Christian volunteers who normally perform these duties can spend time at home with their families. Those of you who wish to volunteer on Christmas Eve or Christmas Day, please call Matt Colker. 304-525-2929 or 304 -521-5389.

Each year on Christmas Eve and Christmas Day, our members also volunteer for Christmas Eve and Christmas Day shifts at the Ronald McDonald House to give Christian volunteers time off to be with their families.

If you are interested, please call Tori Wucher. 304 -525-2411

Sandra Reed
(Director, MU Visual Arts Center)

You may have toured the magnificent Marshall University Visual Arts Center in the former Anderson-Newcomb building downtown.

In 2014, Reed was appointed the first director of the new Center. "A painter by trade," she has "two decades of experience and administration at the [premier] Savannah College of Art and Design."

She is a strong proponent of using visual art and design to help transform historic downtown Huntington.

Thank you to

Sharon Pressman and the Catering committee for the fabulous receptions and special oneg recently.
