FROM THE RABBI

Teach us to count our days rightly, that we may obtain a wise heart. Psalm 90:12

Rav Kook, first Chief Rabbi of the modern state of Israel, wrote: "The psalm concludes with a prayer that our actions should correspond to God's intent for the universe. Then we will feel a holy joy and pleasantness in our lives."

On the first day of July I will have been here at B'nai Sholom a year - a year brimming with opportunity and fulfillment. 'Tis a good time to consider both the year now passing and the one to come.

When I got here you wanted me to do three things:

- Teach in the religious school
- Offer adult learning opportunities
- Keep services going: Friday, Reform; Saturday, Conservative; Sunday, Orthodox

The best thing about our religious school is that all the students get to know each other regardless of age – lots of opportunities to gain an honorary big sister or little brother. For me this year has been one of getting to know the students, parents and teachers in the format already established by Principal Samantha and her teachers. We had lots of fun and learned some Torah along the way. Religious School children have led family services on the first Friday of each month. Remember experiencing Mt. Sinai on the bimah while Charlie, Aaron and Aysa read Torah with the thunder and smoke and shofar sounding!

In the coming year we will add a confirmation class to Sunday morning, and I will be teaching Hebrew. We plan to support the teachers more as we continue to aim for a good time of creative learning experiences. Art, music, and drama will help us explore Jewish history, holidays and thinking.

Adult learning has included Hebrew and Tanakh (Hebrew Bible) and several topics once a month on Shabbat morning: High Holy Day Liturgy, Keeping Kosher, Torah, God, among others. This summer come discuss Essentials of Judaism on Tuesday evenings (see page 3 for details). Teaching is one of my most treasured experiences, and in the coming year I hope to share the wealth. Many are the brilliant Jews in the area who can offer us gleanings from their expertise. We aim to tap this resource. If you have something you'd like to teach or someone you'd like to recommend as a teacher please contact me.

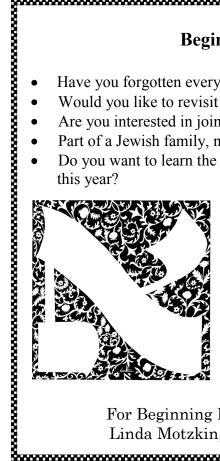

Our services have been comfortably familiar with a few that stood out: Family Services; Rabbi Gaylia Rooks and Steve Stuhlbarg playing for my installation; Broadway Shabbat; Shavuot's reading of Ruth. In the coming year I want you each to have the opportunity to help plan and/or lead a service. It is SO much more exciting than just listening. If you're interested in Pop Shabbat, Yiddish Shabbat, Israel Shabbat, Labor Shabbat, Sephardic Shabbat or any other sort of Shabbat, let me know. OH! If you would like to learn to read Torah, please plan to join our adult B'nei Mitzvah class in the fall.

Wishing you holy joy and pleasantness in your lives,

Rabbi Jean E. Eglinton

Dear Shabbaton Women,

How about that weekend! The women from The Temple in Louisville were charmed by your hospitality. Thanks to Lynne Mayer for your excellent presentation on the Jews of West Virginia. Thanks to the Levy family for transporting the Torah Ark safely to and fro. Special thanks to Sharon Pressman for taking care of all the logistics of housing and food. Thanks to Mary Lee Glaser for the lovely delicious challahs. Thanks to all of you who came and tried out a new experience (and brought desserts for the Oneg Shabbat).

If you want to help me plan and carry out a Shabbaton for everyone at B'nai Sholom, I would be excited to do that with you. Thanks are also due to Paul Mayer, Herb Colker and David Glick for leading the services at B'nai Sholom that weekend. We are blessed to be able to count on so many folks pitching in whatever the occasion.

Bivrakha (with blessing), Rabbi Jean

Once again, I thank the choir for an outstanding year. While our numbers were a little low at times, we continued to enhance the Shabbat services with dedication and enthusiasm.

I encourage any of you who like to sing (It doesn't matter if you don't have a professional voice) to contact me about joining the Congregational choir. We will be starting our rehearsals for the High Holidays in August and will begin singing for Shabbat shortly after Yom Kippur. We NEED you and your voice!

Have a great summer!

Happy New Year!!!!!

A smidge early, we know, but Sherri's mother, Lisa's mother and Barbara's mother once said, "You can never be too early."

Actually, it may have been Rabbi Jean's mother.

At any rate, if you're in the mood to be ready for the High Holidays, the shop chicks are ready to help you do it.

The shelves are still somewhat dusty after Passover, but they will soon be sparkling and dotted with fabulous Judaica, fun serving pieces and very funky gift items.

We promise you will be dazzled by the Bling and the Blong. This is not a Bluff!!

Make your New Year's resolutions (oh yes, we do have large resolutions for the High Holidays, but we call them amends) to become a regular in the Sisterhood Shop.

You don't have to wait until September to be a super shopper; one phone call gets you a private showing anytime day or night (after 10:00 A.M. of course).

Despite the soft economy, the kisses are still free Now, that's a bargain.

Shop early and often because when it's gone - - it's gone.
