PEACE CORPS VOLUNTEERS

My mother was a Peace Corps Volunteer. You can be one too. Not by joining the international Peace Corps based in DC, but by joining the Volunteer Corps of the Children of Peace, the Volunteers of B'nai Sholom. Back in the day, there was a convention to precede the name of a Jewish congregation with two Quf's. Quf is a Hebrew letter which sounds like "k". This abbreviation stood for Kehilah Kedoshah, or "Holy Community." Now our official name is "Congregation B'nai Sholom." B'nai Sholom, of course, "means Children of Peace." What happened to the "Holy" part?

There is a Dan Nichols song that anyone who's been to a Reform summer camp lately has heard called Kehilah Kedoshah. The song envisions the holy community as extending back to Mt. Sinai and including every Jew since. Dan expects that keeping that idea in mind will inspire Jews to "play a part... seek the truth... remember the pain... find the joy... do the work." Each holy congregation is a microcosm in that grand holy community of Israel.

Remember the lesson of Korach, which we studied a couple of weeks ago. Korach told Moses – "What makes you think you are so special? We are all holy." Korach got swallowed up by the earth for presuming to be holy when he was only motivated by his own aggrandizement. The lesson was that God had indeed told the Israelites, "You will be holy." The point in using the future tense is that it takes work to be holy. We are not holy just on account of being Jews. We have to walk the walk. AND it is not enough to do it as an individual off on my own somewhere. We have to do it together.

There is no point in reinstating the use of the term Kehilah Kedoshah; it is quite presumptuous. However, as something to aim toward, Holiness is right on. Talmud teaches that every Jew – good or not (however you want to define that) – has a part to play in the congregation. More than that. Talmud teaches that just as the incense included bad smelling ingredients as well as the sweet frankincense and myrrh, all Jews are necessary in order for us to be holy.

So join B'nai Sholom's Peace Corps Volunteers* and help us aim in the direction of holiness. Even if it's just to offer your two cents on a particular issue that concerns you. We'll even feed you for your trouble. Sunday, July 12, at 10:00, right after our Weekday Minyan, pick up some food and take your pick of six different working groups to participate in. The schedule is outlined on page 5. If you can't make it that day, just let me know your passion and we'll see where we can fit it in.

It won't be easy. Quf"Quf also stands for ktzat kasheh, which means a little bit difficult. But with all of us working together, only ktzat – only a little!

Looking forward to planning with you this summer, and working beside you in the year to come,

Rabbi Jean E. Eglinton

*This is not our official title, just a whimsy of mine :-)

This makes it much easier for the food bank to sort and distribute the food we give them. We will also have a barrel – we won't turn away individual cans or boxes!

MOST NEEDED ITEMS (pop top cans are the best):

- ❖ Fruit
- ❖ Vegetables
- ❖ Chicken
- ❖ Tuna

TISHA B'AV - The 9th of the Month of Av
MOURNING THE DESTRUCTION
Sunday Morning, July 26
9:00 AM Tisha B'Av Service

Tisha B'Av is a fast day commemorating the destruction of both Temples.

This year the fast runs from sundown
July 25 to sundown July 26.

It is a complete fast from food and water for 24 hours, much like Yom Kippur.

What is the difference? On Yom Kippur we don't need to eat because we are focused on the prayers, music, and study that are helping us to clear out our souls for the coming year.

On Tisha B'Av we can't bear to eat because we are focused on the immense suffering of the calamities of Jewish history.

During the service we will read from the Book of Lamentations
(Eicha in Hebrew).

BRUNCH & COMMITTEE MEETINGS
Services at 9:00 AM
Program & Brunch at 10:00 AM

Dear Fellow Congregants,

We are trying something different in an effort to energize our committees and get more members involved in planning our programs and activities. We are all busy people, so we have to use the time available to serve the Congregation efficiently.

In order to avoid the hassles of scheduling and rescheduling committee meetings and running our members ragged, we are going to have preplanned meetings. Each committee will meet once a quarter. All the meetings will be in the social hall, library or board room on the same day. Please see the schedule below.

Committee chairs may determine that additional meetings are desirable, or they can use technology to have on-line or phone meetings. We are not trying to micro manage the committees.

Volunteers are needed to serve on all of our committees. You may serve on more than one committee. You can serve on all of them.

Every member of the Congregation is welcome to attend and participate in any or all of the committee meetings. Many hands make light work!!!!

To the B'nai Sholom Community—Thank you!

We would like to express our thanks, and our deep appreciation, to everyone who gave us good wishes—and made contributions to the Temple in our honor—as we celebrated our 40th wedding anniversary at the end of June.

Words can hardly express how much joy we felt to be able to mark this occasion with our children, our grandchildren and all our extended family at B'nai Sholom!

May the Almighty bless us, all of us, with many more such days of happeniess, such joyous milestones, in the years to come. And again; our thanks to everyone.

Sincerely,
Rabbi David and Tori Wucher

Thanks to all who helped with our Summer Jewish Day Camp!

We had a fabulous 1st B'nai Sholom/Federated Jewish Charities of Huntington , WV "Camp Keif." Thanks to our wonderful counselors—Tal and Shiri, and our great campers: Gavin and Ella Beverage, Seth and Lydia Glazer, Caleb Bennett, M.E. Ketchum, Kennedy Jacobs-Skolik and Brody Stewart for their participation. Many thanks also to the parents and grandparents who brought their children/grandchildren to camp and picked them up.

We appreciate the guidance from Rabbi Jean and the help from Martha and Bill.

A big shout out to the kitchen staff: Donna Spindel, Miranda Munroe, Rose Riter, Tori Wucher, Barb Silverstein and Niza Uslan, and to our local Federated for helping make this all possible!

Lets have more folks next year! See page 14 for a few of our many pictures of fun activities!

Thanks to Federated Charities for funding this endeavor and to Linda Klein for doing such a great job of organizing and coordinating the camp! It couldn't have been done without her!
