FROM THE RABBI

Kol Yisraeil arevim zeh l'zeh. All Israel is responsible one for the other.

Babylonian Talmud, Shevuot 39a

We count the days from Passover to Shavuot, which this year will be the Confirmation of Aysa Cains, Nathan Jurin, Charlie Newfeld and Aaron Scarr. (See page 5 for details.)

The five of us have been discussing things Jewish this year and teasing out the most compelling bits: The parts that may carry a person through difficult circumstances and the parts that give us a reason to live Jewish lives. Come to the Shavuot Service to celebrate the Giving of Torah and learn from them.

One integral part of Judaism is Israel. Israel means a lot of things to a lot of people. It refers to the modern State of Israel – Medinat Yisraeil. It also means the People of Israel – 'Am Yisraeil' – who are all responsible for each other, according to Talmud. I was very proud of the Huntington Jewish community in April when so many of us came together over the course of a weekend in celebration of Israel the country. Many were involved in the planning and logistics and many more showed up to participate in the events. Our local contingent of 'Am Yisraeil' supported Medinat Yisraeil.

What excited me most is that people representing different points of view came. We have had some hard words in our community about our various approaches to the State of Israel. My role has been to persuade everyone that supporting Israel is more important than our very real differences of opinion. We have had some tentative conversations about these various views, and there is plenty more work to be done there. Yet on Israel weekend we put that aside and came together in support of Israel.

Israel is vital to Judaism for so many reasons. It is a refuge for Jews in dangerous times. It is a place where Jews work to turn millennial-old values into reality, to see if it is possible to build a just society. Israel is the place where the Hebrew language lives again, and it is the source of Jewish culture that has revitalized Jewish life around the world. The Talmud envisioned Jews all over the world – kol Yisraeil – as responsible for each others' deeds, praiseworthy and shameful ones alike. In order for that to be true we have to communicate with each other. That begins here.

During Friday night services we have been discussing the question: Why be Jewish? I am collecting all your reasons, all our favorite things about Judaism, all the guidance Judaism provides for living in a complex world. (They may turn out to be integral to our High Holy Day observance this year.)

Chag Shavuot Sameach – Happy Shavuot!

The Rabbi wants to visit you in the hospital.

Please don't expect that she will find out about it somehow. If you or someone you love is in the hospital, please call the B'nai Sholom office: 304-522-2980. If you would prefer not to be visited, she would be glad to call if you provide a cell phone number.

The Julian Jaynes Society
CONFERENCE
ON CONSCIOUSNESS
AND BICAMERAL STUDIES

Temple Israel ■ Charleston, West Virginia
June 5-8, 2013

Why is the Torah full of references to various gods, idols, and oracles? How did oracles come to influence entire nations? Why did Abraham go up that mountain so obediently to sacrifice his son? Would he do it today? And more importantly, should he do it today?

These are just some of the difficult questions addressed by Julian Jaynes's influential and controversial theory of the origin of subjective consciousness or the "modern mind."

Registration is available on the Temple Israel website: www.templeisraelwv.org

SISTERHOOD

Ladies,

Since we had our Sisterhood Shabbat and dinner in March for the Centennial, the dinner scheduled for May 10th has been canceled. There will be a board meeting soon for all end-of-the-year reports.

Our heartfelt thanks go out to all of you for a wonderful year. If you have any ideas for fund-raising, or just plain fun things, please let us know.

Thank you again for your support and help!

SIMCHAS & TCHOTCHKES

The April rains are over,
The flowers start to pop.
To see our new fresh items,
Just stop in the shop.

The shelves are filled with goodies,
Sent from near and far.
It's important that you see them,
Come by bus or bike or car.

Treasures in all colors,
All shapes and every form.
Candles for the cold days
And sacks to keep you warm.

Here a tallis, there a kippa,
Anything you need.
A platter or some jewelry,
We can order it with speed.

The ladies are all waiting
To greet you with a kiss.
So shlep right into Simchas
There are things you shouldn't miss.

This event became a reality upon the death of SIMON MEYER who left financial resources to sustain his vision of a strong, vibrant Jewish community in Charleston and all of West Virginia.

Through his generosity and the added financial and emotional support of his children, Joan and Steve, we have been able to provide you with a very entertaining and educational weekend.

It is our prayer, as it was Simon's prayer, that you enjoy yourselves and leave with memories of new and renewed friendships, family warmth and togetherness, and a heightened enthusiasm for Judaism.

*That was his dream.
This is now our dream.*

*Thank you,
The Meyer/ Weisberg Families.*
