FROM THE RABBI

"To be involved in the State of Israel is to be in labor." Rabbi Abraham Joshua Heschel

You may have noticed that we say a prayer for Israel in every Erev Shabbat (Friday night) Service these days. The idea is that we should be thinking of Israel all the time, not just at a time of crisis, like last summer.

Israel is such a mass of contradictions for most of us. We rejoice that the modern State of Israel exists and exult in the rebirth of Hebrew as a living language! At the same time, we fear for all our friends and family there, as they live in a really rough neighborhood.

Abraham Joshua Heschel said it eloquently in his book, Israel – an Echo of Eternity.

Well-adjusted people think that faith is an answer to all human problems. In truth, however, faith is a challenge to all human answers. Faith is a consuming fire, consuming all pretensions. To have faith is to be in labor.

Well-meaning people used to say that a Jewish state would be an answer to all Jewish questions. In truth, however, the State of Israel is a challenge to many of our answers. To be involved in the life of Israel is to be in labor.

I invite you to labor with all who care for Israel. Read Israeli newspapers; it is so easy online. Come to conversations we have at B'nai Sholom about Israel. We are committed to making this a safe place where we can air any thoughts about Israel – as long as they include Israel's right to exist. As long as they come from a place of love and support.

Thursday night, May 14, Elliott Mendes of AIPAC (American Israel Public Affairs Committee) will be here to present some facts about the security situation. Please come and hear what he has to tell us. We can have a conversation beyond his message as well. The program begins at 7:30 pm in the Social Hall.

I'll leave you with another of Rabbi Heschel's thoughts:

What is the meaning of the State of Israel? Its sheer being is the message.

May Israel thrive and may we be a part of it.

Appreciation goes out to B'nai Sholom Congregation Members

The Cabell County Public Library would like to express our sincere appreciation to the members of B'nai Sholom Congregation for their wholehearted support of this year's annual gala. Each year, we spotlight a different country, celebrating the cuisine, culture, music and dance.

Our thanks to Joan Weisberg, who suggested that this year's gala should be a salute to Israel. She said she was certain that the members of B'nai Sholom would eagerly embrace the idea, and they certainly proved her right.

Joan put together a steering committee consisting of herself, Rabbi Jean Eglinton, Linda Klein and Diane Shattls that helped in so many ways.

"We couldn't have done it without you" sounds trite, but in this case it's absolutely true. This year's gala was the most successful in the event's 14-year history. Thanks to all of you.

Gift Certificate Program

We are interested in how you would like B'nai Sholom to proceed with the gift certificate program. In the next several weeks please send us an e-mail telling us what you would like to purchase in gift cards. Kroger will continue as we have done last year. If we get $900.00 in one quarter for only 36 people signed up - imagine how much we would get if 80 or 90 households signed up.

Please let us know by e-mail or phone that you would like the gift certificate program to continue and what you are interested in purchasing so we can buy those cards.

We still have Panera and FoodFair available.

Thank You!
