FROM THE RABBI

Living Torah

“God obligates us all to be holy not in some general abstractly spiritual way but in the humdrum particularities of making and spending money...” Dr. Eugene Borowitz

Do you ever feel so swamped by demands on your money and your time that you just throw up your hands? Overwhelming need can be paralyzing. One way to counter that effect is to just do a little bit, do something. To all of you who are donating to the Huntington Food Bank Barrel when you come to temple: Thank you! It is a drop in the bucket (literally) – no more and no less.

hrwt Torah - Teaching

At our last Brunch with the Rabbi we considered various ideas about Torah. One such ancient idea is that we are each called to bring Torah into our lives, that each one of our lives is, in fact, a living torah. So how do we live Torah? On the one hand however you choose to live is your torah – your expression of what is important. On the other hand, as each one learns from every other one – and we all learn from Torah – I continually adjust my living as I try to bring more Torah (teachings from Jewish texts) into my own torah (the teaching that is my life).

hqdc Tzedakah - Charity?

Tzedakah is often translated as “charity,” but the words contain different teachings – different torahs, if you will. The word “charity” comes from a Latin root for love. The idea is to give to the poor out of love. The root of “tzedakah” is “tzedek” – as in “Tzedek, tzedek tirdof – Justice, justice shall you pursue (Deuteronomy 16:20).” The torah of this word is that giving some of what I have to others is an obligation, whether I feel kindly toward them or not. Our textual tradition has explored this concept in depth considering the different levels of tzedakah, the limits of tzedakah, and how to set priorities.

Being Jewish is all about knowing I can never make everything right, I can never do anything perfectly, but I keep trying to head in the right direction anyway. Please join us on November 19 for Shabbat morning service, including Torah study. Directly after service we plan to brunch and study some more Torah (and each other’s torahs) and come up with some strategies for hqdc tzedakah. With any luck we will gain some insights into Living Torah.

May this Hebrew month of Cheshvan (no Jewish holy days other than Shabbat) be one of Thanksgiving!

Rabbi Jean Eglinton

Dear Congregants,

I would like to thank Rabbi Jean, the choir and everyone who participated in and helped make the High Holy Days services and receptions so special. Thanks to everyone who has contributed to other recent Temple events as well, including the Brunches with the Rabbi, and the food drive for the Huntington Area Food Bank. Since there is an especially increased need at the Food Bank this season, we will continue to collect food. A food bin will remain in the 10th Street foyer for this purpose. Also, the monthly "Brunch with the Rabbi" will continue, so try to attend when you can. I know you will find it enjoyable and interesting.

I'm so proud that our Temple youth group is hosting the NFTY sub-regional meeting at the Temple November 11-13. Remember, Shabbat Service begins at 6:00 PM on Friday, November 11, and will be led by youth members. Thanks to all who have volunteered to host the many regional youth groupers who will be here that weekend, and to Kelly Levy for coordinating the host details. Please stay tuned as final arrangements are made.

November 19

Brunch with the Rabbi

"I never knew that Torah and study about the history of the Torah could be so enjoyable and interesting. Thank you Rabbi!!! It was a wonderful program. "D.G."

Global Hunger Shabbat

Come explore Jewish texts on allocation of resources for achieving a just society. Shouldn't we concentrate on problems closer to home than global problems?

We'll also look at "compassion fatigue" which can paralyze our good intentions and generally addressing the nature of tzedakah - just giving.

Shabbat Morning Services and Torah Study: 9:00 AM
Brunch with the Rabbi: 11:00 AM to 1:00 PM

RSVP to the Temple Office by November 13.

Thanks to Art and Joan Weisberg for providing the delicious food for the October brunch!

The Congregational Dessert Meeting is Sunday, Nov. 20. The attendance of our members is very important, so I hope to see many members there.

In closing, I would like to point out one of Rabbi Jean's (many) special gifts--one that you may not be aware of otherwise. Have you noticed the beautiful new artwork that has graced the covers of many of our service programs since early September, including the High Holy Day programs, the Booklet of Remembrance, and the inside cover of the B'nai Sholom Tri-State directory?

We have Rabbi Jean to thank for these skillfully illustrated pieces of Jewish artwork that she has created over the years. Watch for more in the weeks ahead.

Lastly, it's never too early to think about our B'nai Shalom reverse raffle to be held March 11, 2012.

We need everyone's support. Thanks!

Shalom,
 Mark Newfeld
 President

My deepest thanks to the choir who performed magnificently during the High Holidays. They were:

Amanda Carande, Linda Dobbs, Kristen Pino, Judithe Thompson, Gail Feinberg, Barry Thompson, Paul Mayer, Sam Kincaid, Dale Capehart, Justin Wiget, Tom Pressman, Blake Racer, Joan Lerner, and Tori Wucher.

Eric Hodges directed and accompanied. I am so proud of everyone.

If you are interested in joining our Congregational Choir, please contact me by phone, email, or in person. We rehearse on Thursday evenings at 7:00 PM and sing for Shabbat.

Judy Lentz, Choir director

Thanks to Judy Lundy for donating the funds for the Temple to purchase a handicap commode for each of the Temple restrooms.

Congratulations to....

Mark and Suzi Brodof on the birth of their new grandson, Lewis Phillip, and to parents Laura and Henry Dewoskin.

Michael and Trese Spindel on the birth of their grandson, Isaac, and to parents Lauren and Rob Craig.

To all of you who came to the memorial service at the cemetery between Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur:

Thank you for the stories of your dear ones. Hearing them enlarged and deepened my understanding of B'nai Sholom. The money you collected that day has been donated to the Huntington Coalition for the Homeless to continue your families' legacy of caring for the people of Huntington.

Rabbi Jean

Thank You....

Rabbi David and Tori wish to express their gratitude to the many people who helped with the reception following Violet's funeral.

Your expressions of sympathy and thoughtfulness are greatly appreciated.

Rabbi David and Tori Wucher

Dear B'nai Sholom Synagogue,

The Huntington Area Food Bank thanks you for your very generous contributions of funds and food!

Your contributions will go to help needy families in the Tri-State. Again, we thank you for helping us feed the hungry in our community.

Leigh Anne Zappin

Executive Director of Huntington Area Food Bank

Dear Friends,

It is now 45 years since Adrianne and I left Huntington, but our memories do not fade. In fact, as the years go by, they become even more precious.

First of all, welcome to your new rabbi. From all I have heard, you have gone from strength to strength. The future of the temple is secure.

And most important, Adrianne and I wish a good year for each one of you, very much including those of you to whom my name may just be a plaque on some wall. For further identification, I was your rabbi when the "new" building facing 10th St. was built in 1965.

And to my former congregants and long time friends, may your lives continue to have health and peace for you and your families.

For all of you, please know that my thoughts and memories are very vivid--for blessing at this time of the year.

L'Shanah Tova Tikatevu

Save the Date! AIPAC Event! November 10th, Thursday Evening

 Place: B'nai Sholom * Reception: 7:30 pm * Briefing: 8:00 pm

Andrew J. Tabler, Expert on Syria to Speak at B'nai Sholom
The Federated Jewish Charities of Huntington is pleased to let you know of an upcoming event of The American Israel Public Affairs Committee (AIPAC). Joshua Karsh, our AIPAC Regional Director, along with guest speaker, Andrew J. Tabler will be in Huntington Thursday, November 10th.

Andrew Tabler has interviewed Israeli president Shimon Peres, Syrian first lady Asma al-Asad, Yasser Arafat, and slain Lebanese prime minister Rafiq Hariri. His articles have appeared in the New York Times, the New York Times Magazine, the International Herald Tribune, Newsweek, and Foreign Policy. He has also appeared in interviews with CNN, NBC, PBS, NPR, and the BBC. Attendees will receive a free copy of Mr. Tabler's new book, "In the Lion's Den: An Eyewitness Account of Washington's Battle with Syria."

AIPAC's mission is to strengthen the ties between the United States and its ally Israel. AIPAC works with all members of Congress to support Israel through foreign aid, government partnerships, and joint anti-terrorism efforts.

For nearly 3,000 years the land of Israel has been the heart, the soul, and the foundation of the Jewish people—the homeland from where its ancient traditions, culture and values have emanated. Since it was reestablished as a modern state in 1948, Israel has emerged as America's most important strategically in the Middle East, a land of freedom and democracy, and a technological marvel that is one of the world leaders in science and innovation. For more information, visit: <http://www.aipac.org/en/why-israel-matters>

Hope to see you on November 10th!

SIMCHAS & TSCHOTCHKES

Happy Thanksgiving!!! Happy Hanukah!!! Happy New Year!!!

And there it is in a nutshell!
The holidays are coming – the holidays are here.

Unprepared? Well, we aren't – the shelves are dotted with platters, spotted with Menorahs, and clotted with celebration hats (actually, yamakules).

The shop is ready for any and all festivities,
and we've got the goods to prove it.

What would Thanksgiving be without a new glass platter – Hanukah without a shiny new Menorah,
New Year's without a festive hat (really, a yamakule).

You need it! We have it!

In addition to the expected, expect the unexpected.
Electric T-shirts, fuzzy stars and more!

Today, the shop is filled. Tomorrow, who knows?

Remember to shop early and often. When it's gone-----it's gone.

As always, kisses are always free.
