FROM THE RABBI

HAKARAT HATOV – RECOGNIZING THE GOOD – GRATITUDE

“We are so used to our gifts that we don’t even really see them anymore. We have grown so accustomed to them that they appear to us as typical, permanent, unremarkable features of our lives.”

Bachya ibn Pakuda, 11th century Sage, as quoted by Alan Morinis in Everyday Holiness

There are two things I’ve seen mentioned over and over again in psychological literature as actually helpful to people feeling overwhelmed by life:

- Writing down your worries
- Writing down your blessings.

Apparently, the act of slowing the racing of our minds enough to write these things down is enough to reassure us that our worries are not actually overwhelming. All the things we have to be grateful for support us through the worries.

In Musar thought (Musar is a Jewish discipline of considering various character traits and becoming more skillful at living a good life) gratitude is called Hakarat Hatov, or recognition of the good. I love what Bachya ibn Pakuda wrote a thousand years ago – that there are things we think are permanent and so we forget to be thankful for them. What do you assume you’ll have when you wake up each morning? Health, living pain free, family members, home, job, reliable healthy food supply, clean air, clean water, living in the United States... the list goes on and on.

Sometimes I let my worries intrude more than is useful. Before our Shabbat Morning at Harveytown Park I thought, “Hardly anyone will come.” Then, trying to think positive, “If a minyan shows up that will be enough.” Well, you know what? About 25 people showed up, and a good time was had by all! We also had reason to be thankful for wool tallises on a cool morning. So thank you to everyone who came that day. The Beverages brought the Ark; Kelly brought food; Walt cooked the hot dogs; Pat brought eggs so I didn’t have to eat hot dogs; Sam and James brought a couple of chairs for those not comfortable on picnic benches; plus many more contributions to the morning. You boosted my confidence in our congregation’s willingness to do something a bit different and my role in it.

This week I’ve been writing notes to people to thank them for random acts of kindness. You’ll find many thank yous in this newsletter as well. Diane, our President from Heaven, does such a good job at that. I invite you to try it yourself. The idea is not to just do it once and forget it, but to cultivate a practice of gratitude and its expression.

It looks like we will be forming a small group of a dozen or so people to study Musar Practice. I hope you will consider joining us as we teach each other skillful living. At each meeting we will study a different trait, a different midah: Simplicity, Humility, Order, Equanimity, Truth, etc. The plan is to study Jewish texts and then see how these things play out in our everyday lives.

May we all enjoy a year of learning together!
Rabbi Jean E. Eglinton

Thank you to Marla and Lee Balaklaw for offering their expertise to save B'nai Sholom many dollars on our monthly cell phone, phone and internet bills at no cost to us.

Marla and Lee started a new franchise business - Schooley Mitchell. The purpose of their business is to reduce monthly costs for credit card processing, cell phone, internet, and landline phone services for businesses or organizations. They typically find savings of 25 to 30%. There is no cost for the initial analysis.

Once hired Marla and Lee's clients only incur a fee if savings are found for the client. The services provided to the client entail making changes in service, monitoring bills and continuing to look for errors on the client's monthly statements and service contracts. They have already saved tens of thousands of dollars for businesses and organizations. Here is a brief overview of their report for B'nai Sholom:

1. For all land line, cell phone, and internet service, a savings of about $123 per month were found, which is a 43% savings from what we are currently paying.
- 2) Our current contract for land line and internet expires in 2015. However we will be signing a new contract with the new pricing for 12 months. We were on the Frontier Business Nation Unlimited plan, paying $159.84 for phone, internet, fees and taxes. Immediately, upon board approval, Marla and Lee switched us to the recommended plan, Frontier Simply Unlimited for a total monthly cost of $102.84. We stayed with Frontier and are receiving the same services and speed of internet but for less money per month.
- 3) The other savings found entailed the Rabbi's cell phone. The Rabbi's phone is with AT&T. The Nation 900 Rollover plan her phone was on, cost us $126 per month. To save money we will be switching the phone to the AT&T Mobile Share Value plan that Marla and Lee recommended. We will continue to keep the Rabbi's phone off a contract as prices are lower that way. The new price includes 1 gigabyte of data and will now cost us $59. That is a 53% savings.

Again, thank you Marla and Lee for sharing your new venture and knowledge with us. So glad we took you up on your offer to help us. Hopefully others who read this will call you to help them. Marla and Lee can be reached at lbalaklaw@schooleymitchell.com or by phone at 606-483-3363 or 606-483-3345. Check out their website at www.schooleymitchell.com/lmbalaklaw

From the President

(Following is the announcement delivered by Board President Diane Shattls at the Kol Nidrei Service)

It is on the holiest night of the year, I stand here honored to share with you, the Jewish community, some wonderful news about our treasured congregants, Herb and Betty Colker. As an expression of love, honor and respect our B'nai Sholom Congregation has decided to create for Herb and Betty a lasting legacy by immediately naming our intimate and lovely chapel in their honor. From tonight on the chapel will be known to all of us as the Herb and Betty Colker Chapel, with an official dedication to follow in the near future.

Herb and Betty have been respected members and pillars of our Jewish community for decades. They consistently lead by example always demonstrating to us the importance of commitment and generosity. Seeing their names tangibly inscribed above the door will always be a reminder of their enduring love for B'nai Sholom inspiring us to make B'nai Sholom the center of our universe as well.

Herb and Betty, we, your congregation love, respect and appreciate you. We promise it will be our mission to strive and live up to the noble expectations you have set for us. That we feel would be another wonderful way to celebrate you both

Shalom,
Diane Shattls

THANK YOU to the following individuals who helped in some way to make our High Holy Day services run smoothly!

- ❖ Rabbi Jean for our meaningful and moving services!
- ❖ Gail Dubinbaum Massaro for coming to Huntington to share your amazing voice with us.
- ❖ Our fabulous choir for your endless hours of practice and beautiful music that moved us to tears!
- ❖ Chad Greene for helping to contact our Jewish Marshall students so those interested could have dinner with a congregant family before services.
- ❖ Barb and Fred Silverstein for hosting our Jewish Marshall students for dinner.
- ❖ Susan Miller for helping us find experienced child care providers to help Tulia!
- ❖ Herman Glaser for preparing the cemeteries for our High Holy Day Cemetery Services.
- ❖ Herman and Mary Glaser, the Huntington Jewish Benevolent Society and Joan Weisberg for the new granite benches at the Traditional cemetery.
- ❖ Herb and Betty Colker, David Glick, Allen Kaplan, Louise and Lake Polan and Jack Steinberg for the new granite container to hold the stones at the Traditional cemetery.
- ❖ Jack Steinberg for his generous donation that established the Edda Steinberg Family Fund that allowed us to have our first year of High Holy Day dinners at Guyan Country Club for any of our congregants who wanted to feel connected to others.
- ❖ Sandy Colker for chairing the Jack and Edda Steinberg Family Fund dinners at Guyan Country Club. Much time and energy went in to all the planning.

(Please see Thank You continued on page 12)

Calling All Doorbusters!

Sunday, October 19 at 2:30 PM

We need six volunteers for that day! We can't proceed without six more people to finish work on the five 10th Street doors.

THANK YOU to the following individuals who helped in some way to make our High Holy Day services run smoothly!

- ❖ Matt and Sandy Colker for the new sensor light that was just installed on our handicap ramp.
- ❖ All the Ushers who warmly welcomed all our guests: Gavin Beverage, David Glick, Donnel Horn, Nathan Jurin, Phillip Ketchum, Judy Lundy, Lynne Mayer, Randy Miller, Rose Riter, Aaron Scarr, James Morris-Smith.
- ❖ The Kleins, The Mayers, The Newfelds, The Pressmans and any other congregants who I am not aware of , who either graciously hosted Cantor Gail at their homes or took her out to lunch, dinner or an activity.
- ❖ Herman Glaser and Judy Woodruff for their endless hours spent calling congregants for their bima honors!
- ❖ Joan Lerner for taking the time to find us all the delightful ushers that welcomed our guests for Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur.
- ❖ Sisterhood for the delicious Rosh Hashanah oneg and luscious Yom Kippur break the fast! Both were beautiful and well attended.
- ❖ Huntington Police Officer Darrell Booth for donating back to the Temple his earnings for Yom Kippur security duty, in memory of his father, Earl Booth, whom many of our members knew and appreciated.
- ❖ Mitch Klein, our fearless leader, and door busters Paul Mayer, Jean Eglinton, Linda Klein, Randy Miller and Nancy Newfeld, who gave much of their time to help improve the look of the building's 10th Street doors. There is still work to be done, so please join in to help us finish.
- ❖ Mitch Klein for the beautiful new wood cabinet in the social hall where all the B'nai B'rith memorabilia is displayed.
- ❖ Allen Kaplen for helping to display the B'nai B'rith memorabilia in the new wood cabinet
- ❖ Martha Newby and Bill Whittenberg for all the hours spent preparing the materials and building for our services!
- ❖ Nancy Newfeld, Mike Patick and Youth Group members Asya Cains and Charlie Newfeld for taking the time on a Sunday afternoon to help set up the play room in time for the High Holy Days.
- ❖ Herman Glaser, Mary Lee Glaser, and Linda Klein who prepared and delivered the Rosh Hashanah gift bags to our congregants who were not able to come to services to be with us this year. I am sure the gift bags made everyone feel loved and thought of. Thank you Herman for coming up with such a wonderful idea and then following through with it.

DESSERT RECEPTION & DISCUSSION

Featuring Marilyn & Rabbi Victor Urecki

B'nai Sholom @ 2:00 PM

Please join us as we welcome Rabbi Victor and Marilyn Urecki, of Charleston's B'nai Jacob Congregation. Rabbi Urecki will share impressions and insights following their recent trip to Israel with Senator Joe Manchin.

Learn about this unique and fascinating trip that provided an in-depth and inside view of the current state of affairs of Israel, which few visitors are privileged to experience. Hear about their meetings with the Prime Minister, military leaders, and Knesset members, their experience at the Syrian border, and their meetings with Palestinian leadership.

Don't miss this exciting opportunity!
